(the "Company")

Board Charter & Matters Reserved for the Board

1 Introduction

- 1.1 The Board has a twofold role: decision making and oversight. Decision making: shall be exercised with respect to the formulation with the management of fundamental policies and strategic goals and through the approval of certain and significant actions. Oversight: concerns the review of management decisions, the adequacy of systems and controls and implementation of policies.

2 Composition and Board Organisation

- 2.1 Nominees for directors are initially considered and recommended by the Nominations Committee of the Board and approved by the entire Board.
- 2.2 The Board should be comprised of a majority of members who are determined by the Board to be independent. A member is independent if the member has no direct or indirect relationship with any other person or organisation which could, in the view of the Board, interfere with the exercise of a member's independent judgement. The Board should state its reasons if it determines that a director is independent notwithstanding the existence of relationships or circumstances which may appear to indicate otherwise.
- 2.3 The Board may establish such Committees of the Board as it sees fit in order to assist it in the fulfilment of its duties. The responsibilities of the Committees shall be set out within their Terms of Reference, as amended and approved by the Board from time to time.

3 Duties and Responsibilities

- 3.1 The Board is required to always act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the Company. The Board is responsible for providing effective entrepreneurial leadership to supervise the management of the Company's business and affairs to grow value responsibly in a profitable and sustainable manner within a framework of prudent and effective controls which enables risk to be assessed and managed.
- 3.2 The Board is required to ensure that health and safety duties and benefits are communicated throughout the Company. Executive directors must develop policies to avoid health and safety issues and must always respond quickly where difficulties arise or new risks are introduced. Non-executive directors should ensure that appropriate procedures and processes are in place to enable all issues relating to health and safety to be properly addressed throughout the organisation.
